2. GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.4 Credit Establishment, Payments and Charges

2.4.1 Establishment and Re-Establishment of Credit

The Company may conduct a credit investigation of each new commercial and or consumer service Customer or applicant prior to accepting the service order, Customer deposit or advance payment. A Customer whose service has been discontinued for non payment of bills for any regulated Company service will be required to re-establish credit before service is restored or any new service started.

2.4.2 Billing and Collection

The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for service, equipment or facilities furnished by the Company to the Customer.

The Company will establish a monthly billing date for each Customer account and shall bill all charges incurred by, and credits due to the Customer under this price list. Recurring charges are billed monthly, in advance of the month in which service is provided, except for usage sensitive charges which will be billed monthly for the preceding billing period. Bills are due by the payment due date printed on the Customer's bill.

When service does not begin on the first day of the billing cycle, or end on the last day of the billing cycle, the charge for the fraction of the billing cycle in which service was furnished will be calculated on a prorated basis, except as otherwise expressly provided in this tariff.

2.4.3 Billing Disputes

The customer is responsible for providing written notification to the Company of any charges in dispute within six months of the bill date, otherwise, the charge will be considered correct and binding. All charges not in dispute shall be paid by the Customer by the payment due date. Upon notification of a dispute, the Company shall undertake an investigation of the disputed charges. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Company shall notify the Customer of any amount determined by the Company to be correctly charged and such amount shall become immediately due and owing.
