

When to Call The Florida Public Service Commission

The Florida Public Service Commission (PSC) regulates the electric, natural gas, water and wastewater, and telecommunications industries in the state. This guide gives specific information about the PSC's responsibilities so that consumers can get help with their utility issues. Contact information is also listed for consumers having problems with non-regulated utilities. For help with solving regulated utility issues, consumers can reach PSC Consumer Assistance at 1-800-342-3552, by e-mail at contact@psc.state.fl.us, or through the PSC Web site at www.FloridaPSC.com.

3. Contact your city or county commission about authorized jurisdiction.

4. The PSC reviews the rate structure these utilities use to collect their costs, but has no jurisdiction over what costs are included in rates. Safety jurisdiction is limited to new construction and compliance with the National Electrical Safety Code. Contact the city utilities office or the Board of Directors of the Cooperative.

5. Contact the governmental entity that levied the tax.

6. To determine if you live in a jurisdictional county, check www.FloridaPSC.com or call 1-800-342-3552.

8. Contact your local law enforcement agency.

9. The PSC has the authority to require electric utilities to comply with safety and reliability regulations. Private electric utilities have the power of eminent domain to take property for just compensation to construct their facilities. Recourse for loss of property value as a result of the placement of electric facilities resides with the courts.
