

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Do most telephone companies offer the Lifeline Assistance Program?

Yes. Companies serving the vast majority of Floridians offer the program, and this even includes some cellular companies.

Can my Lifeline local service be cut off if I have unpaid long distance bills?

No, but your long distance service can be blocked.

I don't have service now because I haven't paid an old phone bill. I also have a low credit rating. Can I still get Lifeline?

Yes. The phone company can require you to make payments on the local part of the old bill. If you haven't paid for your long-distance charges, you may need to have your long distance calling blocked.

Do I have to pay a deposit for Lifeline?

If you have your long distance service blocked, the phone company cannot make you pay a deposit.

What happens to my Lifeline service when I no longer qualify?

You should call your phone company within 30 days of no longer qualifying. Ask for Transitional Lifeline Assistance. This state program gives 30% off the monthly flat rate for wireline residential basic service. You can get this discount for one year after you no longer qualify for the regular Lifeline program.

Will receiving the Lifeline credit impact my benefits from other programs (for example, food stamps)?

No, it will not affect your benefits.

Do my assets, such as owning a car, affect my income eligibility for the programs?

No.

Do I have to be a certain age to qualify for the Lifeline program?

No, age is not a factor in determining eligibility.

Can I get Lifeline Assistance for broadband?

Yes. Many companies will now be offering Lifeline Assistance for broadband. You need to check with your company for its offerings. There is still only one Lifeline discount per household that can be used for phone service and/or broadband.
