The Lifeline Assistance program offers a $9.25 credit per month for broadband and $7.25 credit per month for stand-alone voice service.

Making telephone service affordable to low-income consumers in our state.

You may be eligible for savings if you receive benefits under one of these programs:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Medicaid
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8)
- Veterans Pension and Survivors Benefit

In addition, if you live on a federally recognized tribal land and are eligible for benefits through the Bureau of Indian Affairs for Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Head Start Subsidy or the National School Lunch Program, you qualify for Tribal Link-Up and expanded Lifeline Assistance.

If you are at or below 135% of the poverty level, but not currently receiving benefits from one of the listed programs, you may be able to qualify by contacting your service provider. Some wireless and competitive local exchange companies (CLECs) also offer the Lifeline Assistance program.

If you have questions about eligibility, or would like to sign-up for the program, CALL YOUR LOCAL TELEPHONE COMPANY, call the Florida Public Service Commission at 1-800-342-3552, or get more information online at http://www.FloridaPSC.com/ConsumerAssistance/LifelineAssistance.
