5. RESIDENTIAL LOCAL SERVICE DESCRIPTIONS

5.2 AT&T Residential Local Service Offers (cont'd)¹ (C)

5.2.4 One Rate USA^{sm1} (C)

This Plan provides the Customer with a local access line, touch-tone service, unlimited calls within the Customer's local calling area, and unlimited residential voice direct-dialed domestic long distance and local toll (intraLATA and interLATA) calling. The Customer must be presubscribed to AT&T as the Customer's primary Interexchange Carrier and primary intrastate intraLATA and interLATA carrier. The monthly recurring charge for this plan applies to the primary line and for each additional line. Usage will not be combined with other access lines that are on the same customer's premises, and those lines not chosen for this plan will be billed according to the plans existent on those lines. Individual call detail will not be provided on the Customer's billing statement for any calls included in this plan.

If it is determined that usage is not consistent with residential voice applications, such as for Internet Access Services, commercial facsimile or auto-dialing, resale, telemarketing or other non-residential uses, AT&T may immediately suspend, restrict or cancel the Customer's service.

Customers who no longer subscribe to AT&T as their Primary Long Distance Carrier will continue to be billed the Monthly Recurring Rate for this plan, and will continue to receive local service and features provided in this plan, until AT&T is notified by the Customer to transfer the account to another Local Service Plan, or cancel local service. Customers who cancel subscription to AT&T Local Exchange Service and/or no longer subscribe to this plan will automatically be placed on the AT&T One Rate@10cent plan, as described in the AT&T Consumer Service Guide, unless the Customer requests otherwise at the time of disconnect.

¹ Effective August 20, 2007, AT&T Residential Local Service will no longer be available to new subscribers.
