SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER ESTABLISHING PROCEDURE

On October 13, 1993 Florida Power Corporation (FPC) filed a motion to enlarge the time for filing direct testimony in this case. FPC stated that delays in the discovery process caused by negotiations between FPC and TECO to resolve differences over the scope of discovery, along with the inability of intervenor witnesses to be available for deposition due to illness, necessitated a delay in the time by which FPC was required to file its testimony. FPC asserted that the extension of time to file direct testimony would not require a change in the dates established for the prehearing and hearing in the case. FPC also asserted that Tampa Electric Company did not object to the motion, and intervenors, the Cities of Wauchula and For Meade would not be prejudiced by the extension of time.

In view of FPC's assertions, the procedural schedule adopted in Order No. PSC-93-1273-PCO-EI will be revised to reflect the following schedule:

1)	Petitioner's Direct Testimony	November 30, 1993
