House of Chan is a restaurant located at 1177 South McCall Road, Englewood, Florida. Mr. Ping Kan Koo, owner and primary contact person, filed the application on behalf of House of Chan.

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code.

According to House of Chan's application, wastewater service is provided only to the restaurant located at 1177 South McCall Road, Englewood, Florida, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses. making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Mr. Koo acknowledged that he is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.

Based on the facts as represented, we find that House of Chan is not a utility pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. Accordingly, House of Chan is not subject to this Commission's jurisdiction. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of House of Chan or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that its nonjurisdictional status may be reevaluated.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that, based upon the facts as represented, House of Chan, 1177 South McCall Road, Englewood, Florida 34224, is not a wastewater utility subject to this Commission's jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. It is further

ORDERED that should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of House of Chan or any successors in interest, shall inform this Commission within 30 days of such a change so that we may reevaluate its nonjurisdictional status. It is further ORDERED that this Docket shall remain open to process additional applications.
