Financial Information

Statement of Financial Fitness

Golden Harbor of Florida, Inc. ("Golden Harbor"), d/b/a/ Hometown Telephone, Inc., is a newly formed company and, as such, has no historical financial records. However, Golden Harbor is a wholly owned subsidiary of Thrifty Call, Inc. ("Thrifty Call"). Thrifty Call is a profitable company with a strong record of financial success. In 1996, Thrifty Call had net income of $5.8 million. Golden Harbor will, at least initially, rely upon Thrifty Call's financial strength to provide resold competitive local exchange service in Florida.

As a reseller, Golden Harbor will not have to invest significant sums in plant or equipment. Rather, Golden Harbor will be purchasing the services of the incumbent facilities-based carriers for resale. Golden Harbor, through its parent, has the necessary financial resources to provide resold services, as demonstrated by Thrifty Call's financial and business performance over the last three years.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors Thrifty Call, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Thrifty Call, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Thrifty Call, Inc. at December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Thrifty Call, Inc. (the "Company") is a reseller of long-distance services to residential and business customers. The Company currently provides services in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Montana, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Washington and West Virginia.

During 1994, Thrifty Call, Inc. acquired from one of its stockholders 100% of the stock of Lovelady Management Service, Inc. (LMS) for $500,000 cash and 100% of the stock of Alternative Network Services, Inc. (ANSI) for $400,000 cash and a $1,800,000 note. The acquisitions were accounted for as purchases. Accordingly, the assets and liabilities of the acquired companies have been adjusted to reflect the purchase price of the acquisitions, using an allocation based upon the estimated fair values of the acquired assets and liabilities. The remaining excess of the purchase price over the fair value of acquired assets and liabilities, approximately $1,300,000, has been recorded as goodwill and is being amortized over 15 years.

As LMS and ANSI were acquired from a Thrifty Call, Inc. stockholder, the percentage of the excess purchase price over the historical basis of those assets and liabilities related to this common stockholder has been recorded as a carryover basis adjustment. The Company has recorded a carryover basis adjustment in the amount of $289,474 (retained earnings) which represents the common stockholder's percentage of the excess purchase price over historical net assets at the date of acquisition.

The results of operations of LMS and ANSI have been included in the financial statements of Thrifty Call, Inc. from the date of acquisition.

Accounts Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable are comprised of balances due from local exchange carriers that provide telephone services to the general public and businesses.

Capitalized Installation Charges

Capitalized installation charges represent amounts paid to local telephone companies to initiate service and are amortized using the straight-line method over 5 years.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the various assets, generally two to ten years. Amortization of assets recorded under capital leases is included with depreciation expense.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Notes Receivable

Notes receivable from stockholders at December 31, 1994 consisted of seven unsecured notes each bearing interest at prime rate plus 1% and were due on demand. These notes were repaid in 1995.

| 2000 | | 51,767 |
| | Total minimum lease payments | $890,525 |

6. Income Taxes

The stockholders elected to have the Company treated as an S Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the Company does not pay federal corporate tax on its income. The Company's stockholders include their pro rata share of the Company's taxable income in their individual income tax returns. It is the intent of the Company to pay dividends to its stockholders in amounts that are at least sufficient to cover the tax effect that results from the Company's taxable income being included in the stockholders' individual income tax returns.

The Company is subject to state income taxes in certain states which do not recognize S Corporation status. The Company accounts for such state income taxes using the liability method in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based upon differences between financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities. At December 31, 1995 and 1994, deferred taxes result primarily from differences between the book basis and tax basis of accounts receivable, installation costs and accounts payable.

6. Income Taxes (continued)

For purposes of the Michigan Single Business Tax, the Company has a business loss carryforward of approximately $485,000 at December 31, 1995.

7. Settlement Agreement

In March 1994, a settlement agreement (the "Agreement") was executed by and between LMS and an unrelated long-distance carrier, whereby the existing services agreement was terminated. The Agreement resulted in a one-time cash payment to LMS of $500,000 and required continued payments to LMS through 1996. As a part of the LMS acquisition, payments in conjunction with the Agreement since the acquisition of LMS are made to the Company. The Company received $376,488 in payments under the Agreement in 1995 which were recorded as other income.

8. Purchase Commitments

At December 31, 1994, the Company had committed to purchase equipment totaling approximately $7,000,000. As of December 31, 1995, this equipment had been purchased and capitalized.

9. Related Party Transactions

In 1995, certain stockholders of the company and other individuals formed a related company, Thrifty Call Services, Inc. ("TCSI"). TCSI provides termination services on a wholesale basis in the State of Texas for long-distance providers. Under a management agreement with TCSI, the Company provides management services for TCSI's operations for an agreed-upon fee based on TCSI's level of termination activity. The Company earned a fee of approximately $108,000 during the year ended December 31, 1995 under the management agreement.

TCSI also provides termination services to the Company. TCSI bills these services to the Company at cost. Such termination expenses totaled approximately $142,000 for the year ended December 31, 1995.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors Thrifty Call, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Thrifty Call, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 1996 and 1995, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Thrifty Call, Inc. at December 31, 1996 and 1995, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Thrifty Call, Inc. (the "Company") provides long-distance services to residential and business customers in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Montana, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Washington and West Virginia. The Company also provides termination services to various long-distance companies in the State of Texas.

Accounts Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable are comprised of balances due from local exchange carriers that provide telephone services to the general public and businesses, as well as from major long-distance carriers that provide telephone services to the general public and businesses.

Capitalized Installation Charges

Capitalized installation charges represent amounts paid to local telephone companies to initiate service and are amortized using the straight-line method over 5 years.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the various assets, generally three to ten years.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Stock Distributions and Thrifty Call Services, Inc. Acquisition

In September 1996, the Company made a distribution of 35,000 shares of its common stock, no par value, on a pro rata basis to existing shareholders (5,000 common shares were outstanding prior to the distribution). The Company has restated outstanding share amounts in the financial statements to retroactively reflect the stock distributions similar to a stock split.

In October 1996, the Company acquired all of the outstanding shares of Thrifty Call Services, Inc. ("TCSI") through the issu nce of 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock, no par value. TCSI provided termination services to various long distance companies in the State of Texas. Subsequent to the acquisition, the Company assumed TCSI's operations and TCSI was dissolved. The Company's stockholders were also the majority stockholders of TCSI; thus, the Company has accounted for the acquisition in a manner similar to a pooling of interest and, accordingly, has restated its financial statements to include the accounts and operations of TCSI for all periods presented. TCSI's revenue and net income prior to the acquisition included in the Company's results of operations were $14.7 million and $2.3 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 1996, and $1.4 million and $0.2 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 1995.

3. Property, Plant and Equipment

During 1995, the Company began construction of an office building in San Marcos, Texas to house the Company. The building was placed in service in 1996. During 1995, the Company also installed and placed communications switches in service in Seattle, Dallas, Atlanta and Indianapolis.

3. Property, Plant and Equipment (continued)

Property, plant and equipment, substantially all of which has been pledged to secure lines of credit and construction and equipment notes (see Note 4), consists of the following at December 31:

| L. | Total minimum lease payments | $1,010,000 |

Subsequent to December 31, 1996, the Company entered into a lease for certain switch equipment with payment obligations totaling approximately $1.6 million over four years.

6. Income Taxes

The stockholders elected to have the Company treated as an S Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the Company does not pay federal corporate tax on its income. The Company's stockholders include their pro rata share of the Company's taxable income in their individual income tax returns. It is the intent of the Company to pay dividends to its stockholders in amounts that are at least sufficient to cover the tax effect that results from the Company's taxable income being included in the stockholders' individual income tax returns.

The Company is subject to state income taxes in certain states which do not recognize S Corporation status, as well as a franchise tax in Texas which is based on income. The Company accounts for such state income taxes using the liability method in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based upon differences between financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities. At December 31, 1996 and 1995, deferred taxes result primarily from differences between the book basis and tax basis of accounts receivable, installation costs and accounts payable.

For purposes of the Michigan Single Business Tax, the Company had a business loss carryforward of approximately $485,000 at December 31, 1995. The Company has fully utilized all state net operating loss carryforwards as of December 31, 1996.

7. Settlement Agreement

Pursuant to a March 1994 settlement agreement with an unrelated long-distance carrier, the Company received $129,528 and $376,488 in payments in 1996 and 1995, respectively, which were recorded as other income.

8. Related Party Transactions

During 1995, the Company purchased certain equipment and related services for $265,000 from a corporation in which a shareholder has an ownership interest.

This award recognizes entrepreneurs who have demonstrated excellence and extraordinary success in such areas as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities. His involvement in the telecommunications industry began more than fifteen years ago. Financial analysis, technical knowledge, and a clear understanding of regulations that govern the telephone industry are a few of the skills he has utilized to direct the success of the Company.

In 1985, Mr. Lovelady was instrumental in creating a long distance service (San Marcos Long Distance, Inc.) that garnered 75% of its long distance calling market within six months. Prior to forming the Company in 1992, he served as consultant to a variety of telecommunication companies such as MCI, GTE, Sprint, Qwest Microwave and Collins Transmission Systems (a division of Rockwell International).

Bernice Rainosek, Co-Founder and Executive Vice President, has 22 years of telephony experience, with 18 of those years in the regulated and non-regulated areas of a local telephone company. She was active in the development, implementation, and management of many new successful long distance services for San Marcos Long Distance, Inc., including Operator Services and Dedicated Access. As a resident of San Marcos for 30 years and a strong advocate of economic development for the community, Ms. Rainosek was instrumental in the decision to base the Company's headquarters in San Marcos.

The management team is directed by Jerry L. James, the Company's General Manager. Beginning his telecommunications career with Southwestern Bell almost thirty years ago, Mr. James has held many key management positions. Prior to joining the Company he served as Vice President of Governmental Affairs for LDDS-WorldCom, one of the nation's largest long distance companies. He was instrumental in the formation and management of private line, data, and video networks for THENET (Texas Higher Education Network). A primary focus of Mr. James' experience includes designing, constructing and managing national switching networks, along with microwave and fiber bypass systems. He was instrumental in implementing the first distance learning and tele-medicine programs for the state of Texas.

As a Vice President of Governmental Affairs for LDDS-WorldCom, Mr. James represented that company as its lobbyist and expert witness on regulatory issues in 17 states and Washington, D.C. As a result, Mr. James was highly involved in the negotiations that resulted in the final drafts of the Texas and federal telecommunications legislation in 1995 and 1996. Mr. James, with the cooperation of others, was instrumental in successfully amending Texas HB 2128 with two amendments favorable to his company's business plans. HB 2128 completely rewrote the regulations governing the telephone industry in Texas. He continues to work with state and national organizations and elected officials in on-going efforts to implement new rules for the telecommunications industry.

Martha Smiley provides consulting services to the Company. Ms. Smiley joined the firm of Bickerstaff Heath & Smiley, L.L.P. as a name partner in 1981 and built the firm's extensive telecommunications practice. During her 15 years with the firm, she represented clients in the telecommunications industry, helping them to develop their business strategies and assisting them before regulatory and legislative forums. Her clients included Mr. Lovelady's companies and other entrepreneurial telecommunications start-up companies, Time Warner, Texas Cable TV Association, Texas Daily Newspaper Association, Texas Press Association, Cox Newspapers, Texas Association of Long Distance Companies and numerous other interests. Ms. Smiley is recognized throughout the state as one of the most knowledgeable regulatory and policy lawyer/analysts in the telecommunications industry. Ms. Smiley is a prominent civic leader. Currently, she is Vice Chairman and a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas System.

In October, 1995 Ms. Smiley withdrew from her law firm in order to focus her efforts on the Lovelady business interests. Pursuant to her consulting contract, she provides strategic planning, advice and counsel concerning legislative, regulatory and market implications for the Company.

The Company's Network Operations Department is lead by Neal Parker who has 19 years of experience in the industry. Mr. Parker began his career in the United States Air Force as an electronics communications and cryptographic equipment systems technician. He is knowledgeable in all phases of data and voice encrypted communications equipment installation and repair. Mr. Parker worked for several other long distance companies as technical manager of operations and has supervised the day-to-day operations of nationwide network switching centers. He also has experience in the construction and operation of a 200-mile fiber optic network and 7-site 6/Ghz digital microwave system. Mr. Parker previously managed local telephone service operations for Central Bell, including critical operations for police and fire systems.

The Company's Provisioning and Planning Department is managed by Gary Gibbs. Mr. Gary Gibbs' 22-year career in the industry started with Mission Control during the Skylab program. He worked for Southwestern Bell and Occidental Petroleum, and served Houston Network as technical manager of network operations and network planning.

Alan Rainosek manages the Information Management Department and the daily data processing operations associated with network switching, provisioning and planning, customer service, accounting, marketing and billing. Mr. Rainosek is knowledgeable of information systems needed to support local service. He developed the Company proprietary customer service software and migrated the toll rating system from HP 9000 system to a PC based environment which dramatically increased the Company's efficiency. Mr. Rainosek's expertise has been instrumental in the Company's rapid growth. Because telecommunications is an extremely data-intensive industry, the Company is fortunate to have a staff with 25 years of experience in the local exchange industry and 44 years of combined telecommunications programming experience.

The Customer Service and Marketing group is directed by Carletta Morris. Ms. Morris has more than 25 years of multi-faceted advertising experience, including print, broadcast and video. Her talent in creating and designing marketing programs for new services from concept-to-implementation has been utilized by long distance companies, institutions, utilities, retail establishments and manufacturers.

Mike Rainosek leads the Internet group and is responsible for Product Development. Mr. Rainosek has a degree in finance and has been in the telecommunications industry for over three years. He developed the contractual and functional arrangements for a Tier 2 company to start their casual call market program. Mr. Rainosek managed the construction of Thrifty Call's headquarters at 401 Carlson Circle.

The Company's General Counsel, Ann Benolken, has more than 10 years of legal experience in the telecommunications industry. She has represented private and public telecommunications companies in a variety of domestic and international business transactions, including acquisitions, loan transactions, mergers, and securities and franchise offerings. Ms. Benolken began her legal career with a large Denver, Colorado firm representing several of the world's largest cable television companies. Subsequently, while a partner of Bickerstaff, Heath & Smiley, L.L.P. in Austin, Texas, she represented several telecommunications companies, including the Company.

Controller Larry Kovar, a Certified Public Accountant, has been with the Company since November 1994. Mr. Kovar draws upon 20 years of experience in the public and private accounting sectors. Prior to joining the Company, he served as Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Controller for a software development company and two real estate syndication and property management firms. He also served as Vice President of Finance for a telecommunications company. Mr. Kovar's experience includes seven years as a senior consultant and auditor for a "Big 6" accounting firm.

The Director of Business Development, Mike Bickley, has 23 years experience in the industry with extensive sales experience. He previously held the position of Director of Account Management for a Tier 2 carrier. During his tenure there, Mr. Bickley increased sales by 150%. Mr. Bickley currently is head of the Company's marketing efforts to provide network services for other switchless reseller companies via our 1+ Resale program.

The Company's Human Relations Department is managed by Gary McBryde. His 15 years of experience ranges from development of vocational services to directing the organizational development of 250 employees. Mr. McBryde has been instrumental in recruiting the Company's current staff.
