RE: Docket No. 992000-TX - Pushbutton Paging & Communication, Inc.

This is a follow up to our telephone conversation concerning the past due regulatory assessment fees (RAFs), including statutory penalty and interest charges. If the company wants to keep its ALEC certificate active, it must pay the past due amount in full. According to Commission records, the 1998 RAFs have not yet been paid. The amount due is based on intrastate revenues; however, the minimum due is the $50.00 fee, $12.50 penalty, and $6.00 interest, for a total of $68.50 if the payment is postmarked in January 2000. The 1998 form is attached. If you owe more than the minimum, the penalty is 25% of the amount due and the interest is 12% of the amount due. If the 1998 payment is postmarked in February 2000, the interest increases to 13%, or $6.50 on the minimum amount due. The 1999 form is also attached.

In addition to paying the past due amount, along with the accrued penalty and interest charges, the company needs to make a settlement offer to resolve this docket. In other cases dealing with this rule violation, the Commission has accepted a $100 settlement in lieu of the $500 fine normally imposed. The settlement letter needs to include the following:

- Docket number;
- Statement that it has taken steps to prevent future late payments of the regulatory assessment fees;
- Make a specific monetary settlement;
- Enclose a check for the past due amount.

Any settlement offer should be addressed to Ms. Blanca Bayó, Director, Division of Records and Reporting, Florida Public Service Commission, at the above address. As information, the proposed settlement amount should not be paid at this time. It will become due after the Commissioners vote on this issue.
