Good afternoon, Mr. Brannan. I'm following up on this electronic filing that we received on Thursday, November 15th. It was apparently followed by a duplicate hard copy via U.S. Mail and was delivered to our office at 7:32 on Monday, November 19th.

Please note that if you file electronically, we do not require a follow-up hard copy. It creates duplication in the docket if we receive both electronically and on paper. Both documents have been placed in the docket file at this time because the hard copy was filed with a cover letter that the e-filing did not include, making the filing "slightly different" from the first document e-filed. For future reference, please refer to our e-filing requirements: <http://www.psc.state.fl.us/dockets/e-filings/>.

Miscellaneous

- If a document is filed electronically, no paper copies are required to be filed.
- The party filing a document remains responsible for serving the document in accordance with applicable rules and orders, including service on the appropriate Commission attorney.
- If a document is electronically filed in PDF format, the party submitting the filing remains responsible for compliance with any applicable provisions of Rule 25-22.028(1), F.A.C., relating to submission of the document on diskette in word processing or spreadsheet format.

Thanks for e-filing!
