FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S FIRST REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

NOW BEFORE THIS COMMISSION, through undersigned counsel, comes Florida Power & Light Company ("FPL") and, pursuant to Rule 25-22.006 of the Florida Administrative Code and Section 366.093 of the Florida Statutes, hereby submits its First Request for Extension of Confidential Classification of certain material provided to the Florida Public Service Commission ("Commission") staff ("Staff") during the energy conservation cost recovery ("ECCR") clause audit of FPL for the year ending December 31, 2003. In support of its request, FPL states as follows:

- 1. On August 3, 2004, FPL filed its initial Request for Confidential Classification of Document Nos. 08245-04 and 08396-04 which were provided pursuant to Staff's ECCR clause audit for the year ending December 31, 2003 (Audit No. 04-070-4-1). FPL's initial filing consisted of its Request and Exhibits A through D.
- 2. By Order No. PSC-06-0188-CFO-EG, dated March 9, 2006, the Commission granted FPL's August 3, 2004 Request.
- 3. The period for confidential treatment granted by the Commission will soon expire. All of the information that was the subject of FPL's August 3, 2004 request continues to be confidential proprietary business information within the meaning of Section 366.093(3), Florida Statutes, and warrants continued confidential treatment. Accordingly, FPL hereby submits its First Request for Extension of Confidential Classification.

DOCUMENT NUMBER-DATE

- 4. FPL incorporates herein by reference Exhibits A, B, and C from its August 3, 2004 Request. Included herewith is Composite Exhibit D, consisting of the affidavits of Kenneth Getchell and Robert Onsgard, which replaces Exhibit D from the August 3, 2004 Request.
- 5. FPL submits that the information previously provided in Exhibit A is proprietary confidential business information within the meaning of Section 366.093(3), Florida Statutes. To the best of FPL's knowledge, the information has not been publicly disclosed. Pursuant to Section 366.093, such information is entitled to confidential treatment and is exempt from the disclosure provisions of the public records law. Thus, once the Commission determines that the information in question is proprietary confidential business information, the Commission is not required to engage in any further analysis or review such as weighing the harm of disclosure against the public interest in access to the information.
- 6. As the affidavits provided in Exhibit D indicate, the information provided by FPL contains internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors or information related to reports of internal auditors. Such information is proprietary confidential business information pursuant to Section 366.093(3)(b). Also contained in this information is customer-specific account information. It is FPL's corporate policy not to disclose customer-specific information. This policy is premised upon customers' right to privacy and the potential that the disclosure of customer-specific account information may harm some customers' competitive interests. The Commission previously affirmed that customer-specific information constitutes confidential proprietary business information that relates to competitive interests, pursuant to Section 366.093(3)(e), in Order Nos. PSC-06-0188-CFO-EG and PSC-06-189-CFO-EG. Nothing has changed since confidential treatment was granted by Order No. PSC-06-0188-CFO-EG that would render the information stale or public such that continued confidential treatment would not be appropriate.

7. Upon a finding by the Commission that the material previously provided in Exhibit A warrants continued confidential treatment, such information should not be declassified for a period of at least eighteen (18) additional months. FPL further requests that the material be returned to FPL as soon as the information is no longer necessary for the Commission to conduct its business, pursuant to Section 366.093(4), Florida Statutes.

WHEREFORE, for the above and foregoing reasons, as more fully set forth in the supporting materials and the affidavits included herewith, Florida Power & Light Company respectfully requests that its First Request for Extension of Confidential Classification be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Jessica Cano Attorney Florida Power & Light Company 700 Universe Boulevard Juno Beach, Florida 33408-0420
