On page 238, staff's stipulated composite Exh's 2, states that the discovery is "non-confidential"; on page 239, staff indicates the 3 confidential documents; which on pages 3263, 3264, and 3265 there is a place holder for the confidential exhibits (for bates stamp pages 3025, 3026, and 3027).

The exhibits appear to be redacted.

I think the document is redacted: Please see Hearing Exhibit No. pages 00001227 and 00001750, those pages are of redacted documents followed by the confidential stamp. In addition, there are evident redactions within these "confidential" pages. That is just my take on the document. Maybe Marguerite can do review as you suggest to confirm my findings.

Houston out.
