ORDERED that the Liquidating Trustee is authorized to conduct a final distribution to holders of allowed general unsecured claims as set forth in attached Exhibit B, in full and final satisfaction of such listed claims; and it is further

ORDERED that the Liquidating Trustee is authorized to treat any holder of an allowed general unsecured claim who fails to provide tax withholding information requested by the Liquidating Trustee as having forfeited any right to a final distribution; and it is further

ORDERED that to the extent any checks from the final distribution are returned or not negotiated within sixty (60) days after such checks are remitted to the corresponding holders of allowed general unsecured claims, the Liquidating Trustee may, in its sole discretion, cancel such checks or refuse to issue new checks or close the corresponding bank account and shall be released and discharged of any further obligation to make distributions to such holders, and the funds shall be property of the Liquidating Trustee to be used at its sole discretion; and it is further

ORDERED that it is not necessary for the Liquidating Trustee to object to any claims filed in these cases after the deadlines for filing such claims set forth in prior Orders of this Court, and such claims are deemed disallowed; and it is further

ORDERED that upon entry of the final decree, the Liquidating Trustee, the Trust, the members of the Oversight Committee created under the Liquidating Trust Agreement, the PLC Group, and their respective predecessors, successors, affiliates, agents, employees, attorneys, officers, directors, and representatives shall be fully released and discharged of any and all duties and obligations they may have had in carrying out the terms of the Plan and Confirmation Order and shall have no liability or further responsibilities in connection therewith. This release and discharge is in addition to, and does not otherwise alter, the releases, exculpations, and injunctions previously provided in the Plan and Confirmation Order; and it is further

ORDERED that upon the final distribution and the Claims Agent's return of all claims, a claims register and any other reports required by the Court to the Clerk of the Court, the Claims Agent shall be released and discharged from its duties in these cases; and it is further

ORDERED that the Liquidating Trustee and Savvis are authorized to destroy any and all documents in their actual or constructive possession, including those in the possession of Trust professionals, relating to these cases, in their sole discretion, before or after the cases are closed, with the exception of the documents to be provided by the Claims Agent to the Clerk of the Court; and it is further

ORDERED that except for those distributions expressly set forth on Exhibit A, attached hereto, no creditor or other party in interest shall be entitled to a distribution in these cases; and it is further

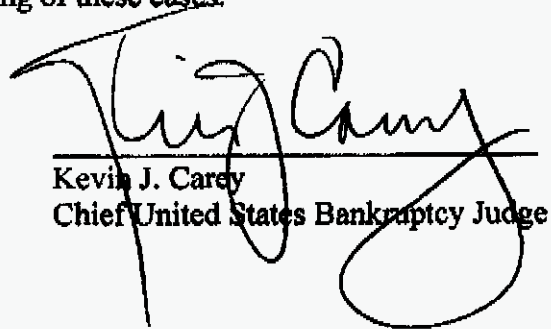

ORDERED that upon the remittance of the final distribution as set forth on the attached Exhibit A, the Liquidating Trustee shall file with the Court a certification of counsel certifying that such distribution has been made, that all fees owing to the Office of the United States Trustee have been paid in full, and that a final report has been submitted, upon which this Court ^{may} shall enter a final decree closing these cases without further notice or a hearing; and it is further

ORDERED that the relief requested in connection with each claim identified in Exhibits A and B hereto constitutes a separate request for relief as contemplated by Rules 9013 and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. This order shall be deemed a separate order with respect to each such claim. Any stay of this order pending appeal by any of the holders of any claim subject to this order will apply only to the contested matter involving the specific claim of such claimant and will not act to stay the applicability or finality of this order with respect to the other matters covered herein; and it is further ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to issues arising under this Order notwithstanding the closing of these cases.
