Re: Cancellation of Alternative Access Vendor Certificate

Dear Sir or Madam:

Our firm is counsel to Latin American Nautilus Service, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as, "LAN Service"). As described below, LAN Service hereby requests cancellation of its Alternative Access Vendor Certificate.

In accordance with Florida Administrative Rule 25-24.735, Latin American Nautilus USA, Inc. ("LAN USA") (as successor in interest to LAN Service) hereby encloses LAN Service's final Alternative Access Vendor Regulatory Assessment Fee Return. It also provides the following information in accordance with the foregoing Florida Administrative Rule:

1. The reason for cancellation of LAN Service's Alternative Access Vendor Certificate is that on March 31, 2010, LAN Service merged itself into its parent company LAN USA. As a result of the merger, all of the assets of LAN Service were transferred to LAN USA. LAN USA has its own Alternative Access Vendor Certificate which it will use in connection with the operation of the assets acquired from LAN Service. Accordingly, the Alternative Access Vendor Certificate for LAN Service is no longer necessary.
2. LAN Service does not have any end user residential customers. LAN Service's business is limited to operation of a fiber optic network. Accordingly, no end user residential customers will be affected by the cancellation of LAN Service's Alternative Access Vendor Certificate.

3. As LAN Service does not have any end-user residential customers, no notice regarding discontinuance of service was sent to the same.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or require any additional information with respect to the foregoing. Thank you.

Kind regards,
