Re: Mad Hatter Utility, Inc.; Docket No. 100337-WS
2010 General Rate Increase Application
Our File No. 28023.18

Dear Ms. Cole:

On September 26, 2011 I filed on behalf of Mad Hatter Utility, Inc. an Application for General Rate Relief in the above-stated docket. By Chairman Graham's letter of September 1, 2011, that filing was not required to be submitted until November 19, 2011.

After detailed review and reconsideration of some of the issues and information contained in the filing as submitted to the Commission, we are of the belief that the filing must be withdrawn.

There are numerous items for which the Utility seeks consideration that were omitted by the Utility in the filing submitted on September 26, 2011.

As such, we are hereby withdrawing the filing as submitted on September 26, 2011.

The Utility will be resubmitting the Application in very short order and well before the currently existing deadline of November 19, 2011. The filing as submitted to you on September 26, 2011 can either be discarded or returned to me as you see fit. You can retain the filing fee as submitted to you and it should be applied to the Application as revised, which we expect to present to you within the next three to four weeks, if not sooner.

If you have any further questions in this regard, please let me know.

Sincerely,

ROSE, SUNDBSTROM & BENTLEY
