Re: State of Florida Public Service Commission Request for Proposals, Docket No. 110013-TP.

Dear Mr. Bloom:

As you are no doubt aware, the reissuance of the RFP for Telecommunications Relay Services for the State of Florida has significantly shortened the timeframe between issuance of the RFP, selection of provider and commencement of service under new terms and conditions. Additionally, the current schedule appears to contemplate an evaluation process that falls into the holiday timeframe.

In order to alleviate the need for a hurried decision and other problems the lack of time can cause, Sprint Communications Company L.P. ("Sprint") hereby offers to extend the current TRS contract with the Commission under its current terms for a time certain or on a month-by-month basis, as desired, through the end of the calendar year 2012 to facilitate the Commission's evaluation of proposals for the new telecommunications relay service contract for Florida. The Commission may find it helpful to know that it can continue under the present contract for as long as necessary to facilitate its evaluation and selection process. This offer remains in effect through the term of the current contract, which is slated to expire 5/31/2012.

Respectfully,

Dottie Cartrite
