RE: Florida Power & Light Company-Docket No. 120015-EI-Confidentiality Request

On September 27, 2012, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), Florida Power and Light Company (FPL) filed a request for confidential classification with respect to the highlighted information contained in Document Number 06494-12; Issue 30 Excerpts from the Office of Public Council (OPC) Post-hearing Brief filed September 21, 2012; FPL's Request for Documents produced which includes Exhibit A-copy of confidential documents; Exhibit B (two copies)-copy of the confidential document-redacted; Exhibit C- a justification table that supports FPL's request by specific line, page or cell references of confidential information; Exhibit D-affidavit in support of FPL's request; and a compact disc in word format containing the Request for Confidential Classification and Exhibit C. FPL states that the information contained in these documents should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 366.093(3)(d) and (e), F.S.

FPL requests confidentiality under Subsection 366.093(3)(d) and (e) F.S., which states:

(3) Proprietary confidential business information means information, regardless of form or characteristic, which is owned or controlled by the person or company, is intended to be and treated by the person or company as private in that the disclosure of the information would cause harm to the ratepayers or the person's or company's business operations, and has not been disclosed unless disclosed pursuant to a statutory provision, an order of a court or administrative body, or private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public. Propriety confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) Trade Secrets
- (b) Internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors.
- (c) Security measures, systems, or procedures.
- (d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.
- (e) Information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information.
- (f) Employees personnel information unrelated to compensation, duties, qualifications, or responsibilities.
