Re: Docket No. 130209-54
Application for proposed wastewater availability charge.

Dear Commission Clerk;

Please find attached copies of notices mailed to parties interested in central sewer service if NPUC's application is approved. They are notices to:

Kingston Shores Condominium
Oceanaire Condominium

Others will be provided as requests are received.

We appreciate your cooperation and help.

Sincerely

DOCKET NO. 130209-SU

APPLICATION FOR EXPANSION OF CERTIFICATE (CIAC) (NEW WASTEWATER LINE EXTENSION CHARGE) BY NORTH PENINSULA UTILITIES CORP.

Issued: September 26, 2014

North Peninsula Utilities Corp. (Utility), a wastewater utility regulated by the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission), filed a Petition for revised service availability charges with the Commission. The requested change to the main extension charge is to enable the Utility to pay for growth in the system. As such, this charge is to be paid by new, not existing, customers of the Utility. Copies of the Application filed with the Commission are available for public inspection during the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday at the Utility's office. The office address and phone number for the Utility is as follows:

North Peninsula Utilities Corp.
115 East Granada Boulevard, Suite 12
Ormond Beach, FL 32176
Telephone: (386) 677-7607

Outlined below is a comparison of the Utility's present and proposed main extension charge.

Wastewater Service Availability Charge

	Present	Proposed
Main Extension Charge	N/A	$1,050.00 per ERC

Any comments concerning the proposed service availability charge may be directed to this address:

Re: Central Wastewater Services from NPUC for Kingston Shores
Condominium

Dear Beth and Laurie;

Thank you for your interest in our proposal to provide central sewer service to your property. I believe you have had contact with our engineer, Gerald Hartman.

Please find attached a copy of our "Notice of Service Availability Charges" as required by Florida Public Service Commission.

We look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely

Robert L. Hillman
