Mr. Twomey:

If it is to be considered a new filing, it needs to say somewhere in the title that it is revised, updated, corrected, or in some way altered from the original filing. As it is filed, it appears to be a duplicate because there is nothing indicating that it has been edited or altered. DN 00640-15 cannot be removed from CMS as a filing, however, you are certainly welcome to file a letter or motion withdrawing that filing. You would have to speak with Ms. Tan regarding the appropriate/legal way to withdraw that filing though.

Actually, it's not. I was instructed by Lee Eng Tan to re-file and make a few edits. I'll forward her email. Should I withdraw the earlier filing? If so, how?
