Managerial Capability

Shawn Matthews
President & Sole Member

Shawn serves as the CEO and President of PacOptic Networks, LLC, overseeing the operations, development, and growth of a forward leaning telecommunications company. Through his vision of reliability, stellar customer service, and the deployment of advanced technologies, PacOptic is poised to become an industry leading Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (CLEC). A former Supervisory Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he held the position of Program Manager in the Cyber Outreach Section, the Violent Criminal Threat Section, and the Training Division. As Program Manager, he led the national bank robbery, congressional threats, killing of federal and local officials, HiTET (an enterprise wide cyber training initiative), InfraGard and the Indian Country Crime programs. Shawn has managed millions of dollars in budgets, provided significant oversight for field operations, and has worked with numerous companies and federal agencies. Shawn's leadership led to the creation of a joint Bureau of Indian Affairs - FBI training academy, the Violent Offender File as part of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), the Investigative Assistance for Violent Crimes Act of 2012, and national reporting requirements for violence against members of Congress. Shawn was honored as the 2000 Officer of the Year for the Roanoke, VA Police Department, twice recognized as their Officer of the Month, received the FBI Director's Leadership Award, and has been recognized numerous times for his outstanding accomplishments in law enforcement. Shawn received a bachelor's degree in human behavior from Radford University, holds a master's degree in justice administration from the University of Alaska Fairbanks and is a graduate of the FBI Academy, the Roanoke Police Academy, and the West Virginia State Police Academy.
