Thank you for the clarification. We have updated the prog mod, removed the comma from TNCI's name, and updated the utilities list.

Have a good afternoon.

Prog mods should be B1f. Utilities will stay the same but just remove the comma from TNCI's title (TNCI Operating Company LLC).

Hi Sakina,

Per your request below, we have made the revision to the docket title. Please advise if the prog mods and utilities listed in CMS should remain the same or changed. I note that the description for the initial petition indicates, "[CLK note: Company names in cover letter and petition do not match names shown in MCD.]"

Thank you for your help!

Dorothy
