Subject: Proposed FPL Rate Hike

I have recently read of a proposed rate hike requested by FPL. It seems to me that a 23 percent base rate increase for all residential ratepayers is greedy and exorbitant. As a senior, I do not get any increase in Social Security yet, utilities seem to take unfair advantage of us. One must also consider the savings that FPL is getting because of the lower fuel costs. And, the increase will only be passed to FPL's investors. Seems rather self-serving if you were to ask me.

I urge you to reject this request and send FPL back to the drawing boards.
