Hello,

I recently received notice of your rate hike in my email. I was disheartened to see this as I already pay a huge cost for power. We recently moved here from Seattle and our power costs have doubled even though our consumption he stayed the same.

I am all for renewable energy and I see a lot of opportunities that seem to be overlooked here. But raising our rates to explore these options seems like the wrong way to go.
Please rethink this hike and reverse the decision

Thanks,
Sean B
