low water pressure - as well as a lack of consistency in water pressure on a day to day basis is a problem to a majority of people in Pennbrooke.

History of Pennbrooke's request for improvement of water quality.

UT offered study of proposed correction Pennbrooke paid $6,000 for that study due to letter from UT (prior to study) that said improvement would only increase utility bills by $1-4/month. The study resulted in proposal for improvement costing over $/M

That would increase H2O bills for $30-40/month.
