COMMISSION
CLERK

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

I received Florida Public Utilities Company letter of intent, notice to customers with the proposed 2.3% power bill increase. In this notice they have advised that they have made significant investments in the system improving safety and stability for storms and modernized. I have been a customer with Florida Public since October of 1988; I have yet to experience the improvements and the prompt modernized customer service that they are proclaiming. Just about a month ago I came home from an eight hour workday followed by a two hour meeting. I was looking forward to a hot shower and a normal afternoon; got home the lights were out for about three hours. Called the next day to try and find out what went on, reached a company not local for Florida Public, asked what happened (explanation a rolling blackout) "the problem" why would you pick the evening when people are getting off work to have a rolling blackout, pick a time during the day when they are at work. This does not make sense to me. They promised me a local manager from the power company on Penn Avenue would call me, this call never came. Needless to say I am not happy with Florida Public Utilities Company's service, and I never have been. For them to ask for an increase in services is an insult to the customers. I have been opposed to any increase for this power company until they improve their services. However, my opposition goes unnoticed by the Florida Public Service Commission and you continue to award them whatever they want at our expense. The customer's voice is never heard and the Commission continues to favor Florida Public Utilities Company. The power of big companies seems to prevail every time over the people, while the customers can't afford the constant increases imposed.

This increase should not be awarded until better customer service is provided and we can see infrastructure improvements by this company. Compared to other local power companies they are not constantly gouging power bills, they provide better service (some even give customer rebates for yearly power conservation), they are not greedy, and are not constantly going to the Commission for increases in power bills. Florida Public Utilities Company needs to learn to live within their means as we the customers must do. It is your job to see that it happens, by not awarding them the 2.3% increase that will be a burden to the customers.

Sincerely,

LaVon J. Pope
