PLEASE NOTE: Florida has a very broad public records law. Most written communications to or from state officials regarding state business are considered to be public records and will be made available to the public and the media upon request. Therefore, your e-mail message may be subject to public disclosure.

Subject: Docket 20180046 Florida Power & Light

I received an E-Mail from AARP with what I consider to be highly inappropriate and inflammatory language. In addition, the E-mail requested that the recipient reply using an E-Mail format that was impossible to modify. Thus I'm writing my own response.

While the PSC has the absolute responsibility to review and adjudicate the disposition of the benefits of the new tax law there are considerations that, I believe, should be evaluated.

1. FPL's rates are already the lowest in the state save for three or four munis.
2. I've been a customer of FPL for nearly 18 years. I found their response to the several hurricanes to be outstanding.
3. Similarly, their response to an early evening transformer failure was exceptional. Their crews worked through the night until power was restored near midnight.
4. FPL's parent is among the leaders in renewable energy.

Full disclosure: I am retired from a Northern electric utility and own stock.
