Utilizing his knowledge and experience, Rickie grew the company from a local VAR/agent company to a nationwide ITSP and reseller of AT&T services. Rickie teamed up with AT&T in 2012, becoming the first member of the AT&T Partner Exchange Program and quickly accelerated to the first participant to ever reach Platinum Elite status, the premier level of the program.

Over the years, Rickie has earned the trust of MSP's and VAR's to incorporate IP voice, data, and mobility solutions into the service mix Altaworx already provides their clients. He forges solid relationships by listening and understanding his partner's needs and in turn, educating them on how the Altaworx solutions will have a positive impact on revenue and their clients' business. Having been asked to be a guest speaker on panels for many Channel Partner events, Rickie has shared his thoughts and expertise on various issues that impact this industry.

If Rickie isn't in his office, or on his stationary exercise bike fully equipped with a custom laptop mount on the handle bars, he's more than likely on a boat somewhere off the coast of Louisiana, running the streets of Fairhope in preparation for his next Iron Man triathlon, or enjoying life's simple pleasures with his wife, Cathy and their chocolate lab, Belle.

Forrest Derr - Executive Vice President

Forrest is EVP for Altaworx. He has been on the Altaworx team since February 2015 and prior spent 18 years as the Vice President of Operations and Technology at an office supply & furniture company. Drawing on his experience, he uses his marketing and process development skills to improve awareness of Altaworx as a thought leader in the market place as well as automating processes to enhance efficiency and the customer experience.

His energy, focus, determination and breakfast gumbo has positioned him as an asset. Something worthy of note, Forrest has been gifted the ability to explain technical issues in terms most end users can understand. Forrest earned his Bachelors of Science in Business Management from the University of Mobile. He is an active member of the Mobile Business Group and the Eastern Shore Business Group. When Forrest isn't working, he's spending time with his wife, Amber and their teenage son, Brandon. He enjoys a good Saturday morning breakfast, community events, Sage Lemonade, and walking their dog (Darby).

Jaime Rawden - Vice President

Jaime is the VP of Partner Development and Marketing with Altaworx. She entered the telecom field in 2001 as a Project Manager for a BellSouth Solution Provider. In 2003 Jaime joined Rickie Richey to form Telecom Agent Solutions, now Altaworx, to provide premise based VoIP telephone systems and carrier services as a BellSouth Master Solution Provider.

Today Altaworx is an ITSP and reseller of Tier 1 carrier solutions with customers in 30 US states, Canada and Mexico. Her varied skills and years of experience make her a true asset to the team. In 2016, Jaime was asked to be a guest speaker on IoT Connectivity for Channel Partners in Washington, DC. In 2012, Jaime relocated to Fairhope, AL where she now resides with her family. When not working, Jaime is very involved with the activities of her four music & sports-minded children: Brianna, Savannah, Blaine and Danielle.

Lydia Walker - Vice President Operations

Lydia is VP of Operations for Altaworx. Tenaciously passionate best describes Lydia when it comes to the company and her team. Having been introduced to the telecom field at an early age, Lydia has gained her knowledge and insight through hands-on experience while exploring the various sectors of the industry. Prior to joining the Altaworx team in 2007, she was an Office Manager at ICS Communications.

With over 14 years of experience, Lydia is a great source of knowledge and applies her expertise daily to ensure quality service to all customers. Lydia has successfully guided local, national and multi-national clients throughout the timeline of their services. Lydia offers successful leadership in all aspects of the operations department.

With proper application of expertise, genuine interest and leadership training, Lydia is at home with her current role as a leader in creating excellence with the help of her team. Within the office, she keeps co-workers on their toes and elevates team morale with her uncanny knack for having a sarcastic, yet quick-witted remark at the drop of a hat. It's truly an impressive skill which she has mastered.

In addition to her role as Director of Operations, Lydia likes to delight the taste buds of those who are favored enough to sample her savory creole cuisine. She is heavily involved with her church and community. When she's not working, Lydia spends as much time as she can with her big family, her son, Jacob (who's smarter than she is if you ask him), and her three four-legged friends: Milly, Shelby and Roxy.
