Bob,

The hearing is being held because JEA objected. JEA is therefore a necessary party, even as First Coast is because its application is the subject of the docket.

By copy of this email, I'm asking that the Clerk change their designation to a party. That's my oversight for not thinking to do it sooner; thank you for pointing it out.

As I mentioned in last week's meeting, it was my expectation that discovery responses would be due no later than 30 days after the issuance of the OEP; when asked, no one expressed any disagreement with that.

Thanks,

Jennifer and Bianca:

We are in receipt of the Commission's Order Establishing Procedure in Docket No. 20190168-WS. During our conference last week we were under the impression that JEA was to be a named party to this matter and would be required to answer our discovery within 30 days. In reviewing the Order we find no reference to JEA's change in status and the PSC website still lists them as an Interested Person. Please confirm that they are now, in fact, a Party to this action, the date upon which they became a party, that they are required to answer our discovery requests and interrogatories, and the date for their answers as it appears that they will not be required to answer until after our testimony and exhibits are due to be filed.

Thank you,
Bob
