Docket No. 030852-TP

Filed: December 23, 2003

SUPRA TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC.’S
OBJECTIONS TO BELL SOUTH’S SECOND SET OF REQUEST
FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (6-7)

Pursuant to the Order Establishing Procedure, Order No. PSC-03-1054-PCO-TP, issued September 22, 2003 (“Procedural Order”), Rule 28-106.206 of the Florida Administrative Code, and Rules 1.280 and 1.340 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, Supra hereby files its preliminary objections to BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.’s (“BellSouth”) Second Set of Request for Production of Documents (“Discoveries”) that were propounded by BellSouth on December 17, 2003.

Supra files these objections to comply with the seven (7) day requirement set forth in the Procedural Order. These objections are preliminary in nature. Should additional grounds for objection be discovered as Supra prepares its responses to any discovery, Supra reserves the right to supplement these objections.

Further, at the time of the filing of these Objections, the issues to be addressed in this proceeding have not yet been identified. Should additional grounds for objections develop as the Commission identifies the issues to be addressed in this proceeding, Supra reserves the right to supplement these objections.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Supra makes the following general objections to the discoveries which will be incorporated by reference into Supra's specific responses when Supra responds to the discoveries.

1. Supra objects to the "Definitions" section, the "General Instructions," and the individual discovery items of BellSouth's Discoveries to Supra to the extent that they are overly broad, unduly burdensome, and/or oppressive.
2. Supra objects to the "Definitions," the "General Instructions," and the individual discovery items to the extent they are irrelevant and not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
3. Supra objects to the discoveries to the extent they seek to discover information that is inconsistent with or unrelated to the parameters and methodology of the impairment analysis prescribed in the Triennial Review Order.
4. Supra objects to the "Definitions," the "General Instructions," and the discovery items to the extent they are vague, ambiguous, imprecise, or utilize terms that are subject to multiple interpretations but are not properly defined or explained for purposes of these discoveries.
5. Supra objects to the "General Instructions" and the discovery items of BellSouth's Discoveries to Supra to the extent that they purport to impose discovery obligations on Supra that exceed the scope of discovery allowed by the applicable Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.
6. Supra objects to the "General Instructions" section and the individual discovery items of BellSouth's Discoveries to Supra to the extent that the "instructions" purport to seek disclosure of “all” documents, materials or information in Supra’s possession. Supra’s responses will provide all nonprivileged and otherwise discoverable information obtained by Supra after a reasonable and diligent search conducted in connection with the discoveries. Such search will include a review of only those files that are reasonably expected to contain the discovery documents and/or information. To the extent that “instructions” or individual discoveries require more, Supra objects on the grounds that compliance would be unduly burdensome, expensive, oppressive, or excessively time consuming, and unnecessary to accomplish BellSouth’s legitimate discovery needs.

7. Supra objects to BellSouth’s Discoveries to Supra to the extent that the discoveries seeks discovery of materials and/or information protected by attorney/client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant/client privilege, or any other applicable privilege.
8. Supra objects to BellSouth’s Discoveries to Supra to the extent that the discoveries would require disclosure of information that constitutes trade secrets and/or proprietary confidential information and therefore should either not be disclosed at all or should be disclosed only pursuant to the terms of a confidentiality agreement.
9. Supra objects to all discoveries which would require the production of materials and/or information which is already in BellSouth’s possession or is in the public record before the Commission. To duplicate information that BellSouth already has or is readily available to BellSouth would be unduly burdensome and oppressive.
10. Supra objects to BellSouth’s Discoveries to the extent BellSouth seeks to impose an obligation on Supra to respond on behalf of subsidiaries and/or former officers, employees, agents, and directors on the grounds that such discoveries for production are overly broad, unduly burdensome, oppressive, and not permitted by applicable discovery rules.
