Dear Ms. Norris:

Please accept this correspondence as an update to the above-referenced Docket. On June 20, 2011, the following individuals were present at a meeting styled as a "Settlement
Conference" and held in the Orlando, Florida office of Dean Mead:

On behalf of Aquarina Utilities, Inc. (AU):

Martin Friedman
Kevin Burgess
Reginald Burgess

On behalf of Aquarina Community Services Association (ACSA):

Kelly Sullivan
Ralph Young
Sam Columbo

On behalf of RAM Golf Management (RAM):

Danny Mays
Tom DeShazo

On self-interest as a developer:

Mike DiAntonio

Steve Reilly

The referenced individuals met to air concerns related to water distribution in the Aquarina Community. AU and RAM had met prior to the Settlement Conference and appeared to have resolved their issues except for billing issues that will be handled through the PSC complaint process.

AU and ACSA had an amicable discussion resulting in a better understanding of each party's position. At the end of the meeting, the parties agreed that AU would submit financial records to OPC for review by an analyst. OPC would share the results of the analyst's review and ACSA would be in a better position to decide whether to continue or withdraw its protest in the referenced Docket. To date, I have not had an update from Mr. Reilly re same.

We would appreciate forbearance in the matter until OPC can complete its review of AU's financial records and, if satisfactory, ACSA will withdraw its protest avoiding a formal hearing.

Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kelly Sullivan
