Subject: FW: Copy of letter from Duke Energy to NRC Re Crystal River Nuclear Unit 3

Hi Suzanne,

The attached letter has been entered in Docket 20190140 (DN 14131-2025) per ECO/Draper (see email trail below). Duke Energy is a party to the docket, but Skadden Law Firm is not. DN 14131-2025 is a letter from Duke Energy to the NRC. The FPSC is not copied on the letter, but "State of Florida" is. My question is this, since the document has been added to the docket file as an official filing, should Skadden Law Firm be added to the docket as a party of record as a representative of Duke Energy or not?

Thank you for your help!
Dorothy

Subject: Copy of letter from Duke Energy to NRC Re Crystal River Nuclear Unit 3

Good morning, Elisabeth,

CLK received the attached document by U.S. Mail today. The cover letter is from Skadden Law Firm, on behalf of Duke Energy, to the NRC/Control Desk. The Commission is not cc'd on the letter, but the "State of Florida" is.

Typically, we receive documents from Duke Energy/Triplett in Docket 20190140 and it includes a cover letter advising as to the purpose of the filing. Since the attached appears to be a letter from Duke Energy to the NRC and not the FPSC, does not reference a docket number, does not explain why the document was sent to the FPSC, and does not appear to be a decommissioning annual or quarterly report, we need guidance as to what to do with this filing.

Thank you for your help!

Dorothy
