E10. LATA CONFIGURATIONS

E10.1 General

United Telephone assents to, adopts, and concurs in Section E10 of the BellSouth Telecommunications Company, LLC d/b/a AT&T Florida Access Service Tariff filed with the Public Service Commission of Florida as such section now exists, or as it may be revised, added to, or supplemented by superseding sheets or issues, and hereby makes itself a party thereto, and obligates itself to observe each and every provision thereof. (C)
(C)

E10.2 Equal Access Exchange Areas (EAEA) for Central Telephone, LATAs and Market Areas

E10.2.1 LATA and Market Area Configurations

A LATA or Market Area is a geographical area in which Access Service is provided.

E10.2.2 Equal Access Exchange Areas (EAEA) for Central Telephone

EAEAs are geographical areas, configured based on 1987 planned toll center/access tandem areas, in which the Company is responsible for providing equal access to both carriers and end users in the most economically efficient manner. In an EAEA, ICs and resellers may have one or more point of presence so long as any additional costs incurred by the Company in providing such alternate or additional point of presence be paid by the party choosing such locations. (FPSC order 13750, Docket 820537-TP October 5, 1984)

A primary point of connection will be provided by the Company in each EAEA.

EAEA's and the exchanges contained therein are listed below.
