ORDER GRANTING CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF SPECIFIC MATERIAL
CONTAINED IN DOCUMENT NO. 01981-97

In accordance with the provisions of the Order Establishing Procedure for this Docket, Order No. PSC-96-1034-PCO-TL, Sprint-Florida, Inc. (Sprint or the Company) filed the Direct Testimony of Sharon E. Harrell on February 21, 1997. Along with the testimony, Sprint included a Motion for Protective Order and a Request for Confidential Classification of Documents 1 - 10, attached as Exhibit 1 to Sharon Harrell's testimony. The highlighted copy of this exhibit is Document No. 01981-97. The Company asks that the highlighted information in Document No. 01981-97 be granted confidential classification and that the Office of Public Counsel be prohibited from disclosing the contents of Exhibit 1.

In support of its request, Sprint asserts that:

1. The Company has filed this request pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code.
2. The Company has not disclosed this information, except pursuant to a protective agreement that provides the information will not be released to the public.
3. The information specified consists of market information including volumes of traffic on specific interLATA routes broken out in several different categories, including, volumes of messages by messages, minutes, revenues, time-of-day, and residence and business. In addition, averages of messages per access and by minutes per message, revenues per message, revenue per access line and revenue per calling customer are also included.
4. Public disclosure of this information would allow competitors an undue advantage in pinpointing routes that are most susceptible to competition.
5. No public benefit would offset the harm which would be caused by the public disclosure of this information.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
