Re: Docket No. 910163-TL

Dear Suzanne:

I am writing you yet again to request prompt rulings on motions pending before the Commission in this docket. We are still awaiting rulings on pending motions notwithstanding similar letters I wrote to you on July 30, 1991 and July 18, 1991.

A Southern Bell motion for confidential treatment and permanent protective order has been ripe for a decision since July 8, 1991. Until the Prehearing Officer rules, the documents that are the subject of the motion remain confidential without any review of the validity of Southern Bell's request.

In addition, our office filed a motion to compel on July 11, 1991, and Southern Bell filed its response on July 18, 1991. That matter has been ripe for a decision since July 18, 1991. We need a prompt ruling in order to properly continue our investigation in this docket.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Charles J. Beck
Deputy Public Counsel
