ISSUED: 01/15/93

ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS
OF PORT ST. LUCIE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On December 28, 1992, Port St. Lucie Christian Church (church) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of its nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. The church is located at 1420 S.E. Floresta Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida. Mr. Jack D. Jewell, P.E., officer and member of the church, filed the application on behalf of the church.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. According to the application, water service is provided only to the church property, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses. Wastewater service is provided by septic tank at the site.

In addition, the application form states that pursuant to Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, anyone knowingly making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Jack D. Jewell acknowledged that he is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.

Based on the facts as represented, we find that the Port St. Lucie Christian Church is not a utility pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of Port St. Lucie Christian Church or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that we may review the matter to determine whether nonjurisdictional status is still appropriate.
