Re: Undocketed - Review of Regulated Utilities' Year 2000 Preparations & Readiness

Dear Ms. Bayo,

Please add this letter to St Joe Natural Gas Company's written response dated March 3, 1999 in connection to the above referenced issue.

Concerning the company's natural gas operations, no electronic equipment is used to control the flow of gas. All standby, backup and emergency controls of gas flow are performed manually. All control of gas flow is performed manually and will in no way be affected by the year 2000 or any other date.

Sincerely,

Stuart Shoaf
