1 25-22.033 Commission Employee Communications with ~~Communications Between~~
2 Commission Employees and Parties and Interested Persons.

3 (1) The Commission recognizes that Commission employees must exchange
4 information with parties and other persons who have an interest in Commission proceedings.
5 However, the Commission also recognizes that all parties and interested persons to certain 6 adjudicatory proceedings need to be notified and given an opportunity to participate in certain 7 communications. The intent of this rule is not to prevent or hinder in any way the exchange of 8 information, but to provide all parties and interested persons to certain adjudicatory 9 proceedings notification of and the opportunity to participate in certain communications. The 10 provisions of the rule shall not apply to internal agency communications; the Office of the 11 Commission Clerk; communications regarding procedure such as the scheduling of witnesses
12 for depositions and hearings; or Commission employee communications in docketed or 13 undocked proceedings with state or federal governmental officials, representatives, bodies or 14 agencies that are not identified as a party or interested person in the proceeding or otherwise
15 have a legal interest in the proceeding. Nothing in this rule is intended to modify or supersede
16 the procedural requirements for formal discovery under Rules 1.280 through 1.390, Florida
17 Rules of Civil Procedure.

18 (2) For purposes of this rule, the following definitions shall apply:

19 (a) “Party” or “Parties” are those individuals or entities designated in the docket file of 20 the proceeding or by order of the Commission as an Official Party of Record and includes 21 employees, witnesses, consultants and persons acting in a representative capacity for 22 individuals and entities designated as parties in the docket file. For purposes of providing any 23 notice pursuant to this rule, only those individuals listed in the docket file are required to 24 receive notice.

25 CODING: Words underlined are additions; words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law.

1 (b) “Interested persons” are those individuals or entities listed in the docket file of the 2 proceeding but not designated as an Official Party of Record to the proceeding.

3 (c) “Impermissible Communication” means any communication with a party or 4 interested person, if written, is not served on all parties, or, if oral, is made without notice to 5 all parties or interested persons.

6 (3)(4) Subsections (4) through (8) of t~~This rule shall govern communications between~~

8 ~~proceedings before the Commission. Subsections (4) through (8) of t~~This rule shall not apply
9 ~~to~~ emergency operation center activities, proceedings under Sections 120.54, 120.565,
10 367.0814, F.S. Florida Statutes, proposed agency action (PAA) proceedings before the 11 ~~Commission has voted to issue a proposed agency action order, in which there has not been a~~
12 notice of an interested person or request to intervene filed in the docket or a request for a
13 hearing filed in the docket, non-rate case tariffs, workshops, or internal affairs meetings.~~Also~~ 14 ~~exempted are docketed and undocketed audits, field telephone service evaluations, informal~~ 15 consumer complaints, and electric and gas safety inspections, and cases pending in a tribunal
16 other than the Commission. Nothing in this rule is intended to modify or supersede the 17 ~~procedural requirements for formal discovery under the Commission’s rules and applicable~~
18 ~~provisions of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, or affect communications regarding~~ 19 ~~discovery requests, procedure, or other matters not concerned with the merits of a case.~~

20 (4) Commission employees shall not engage in impermissible communications.

21 ~~(4)(2) Written Communications—Notice of any written communication between~~ 22 ~~Commission employees and parties shall be transmitted to all other parties at the same time as~~ 23 ~~the written communication, whether by U.S. Mail or other means.~~

1 persons, and the Office of Public Counsel shall be given reasonable notice of the time and
2 place of any ~~scheduled~~ meeting or telephone conference call between Commission employees
3 and parties or interested persons. The notice of the meeting or telephone call shall be posted 4 on the Commission's Web site, www.floridapsc.com, within a reasonable time prior to the 5 meeting or telephone call. ~~For purposes of this subsection, a conference call is defined as a~~
6 ~~telephone call involving three or more persons.~~

7 (6) All written communications between Commission employees and parties, except 8 discovery requests and discovery responses, shall be placed in the docket file to which the 9 communication pertains by the person making the communication within 3 working days of 10 the date of the communication. If the written communication occurs less than 3 days before a 11 hearing or decision making point in the proceeding, the written communication shall be placed 12 in the docket file and provided to all parties as promptly as is reasonable under the 13 circumstances. A party or Commission employee sending the original written communication 14 shall provide a copy of the written communication to all parties at the same time and, if 15 possible, in the same manner. If a Commission employee orally communicates with a party 16 outside of a noticed meeting or telephone call, the Commission employee shall summarize in 17 writing the oral communication and file the summary in the docket file within 3 working days
18 of the date of the communication.

19 (7) No Commission employee shall contact a party and no party shall contact a 20 Commission employee on any matter at issue in a proceeding conducted pursuant to Section 21 120.569 or 120.57, F.S., during the period of time between the conclusion of the hearing when 22 the record is closed and the issuance of the final order in the proceeding unless the contact is 23 in writing and pertains to a settlement agreement or the identification of a mathematical error 24 in a recommendation and all parties to the proceeding are included in the communication and

1 the written communication is immediately placed in the docket file. The prohibitions in this 2 subsection shall not apply to those communications between Commission employees and 3 parties to investigate and assist in the resolution of informal consumer complaints.

4 (8)(4) Response to Communications – Any party to a proceeding may prepare a written 5 response to any communication between a Commission employee and another party or 6 interested person. Notice of any such Written responses shall be transmitted to all parties 7 provided to all parties at the same time and, if possible, in the same manner.

8 (9) All notices of meetings and conference calls pertaining to changes in rates which 9 occur outside of a docketed proceeding or during a proposed agency action proceeding exempt
10 under subsection (3) of this rule shall be provided to the Office of Public Counsel and posted
11 on the Commission’s Web site within a reasonable time prior to the meeting or conference 12 call. For purposes of this subsection, a conference call is defined as a telephone call involving 13 three or more persons.

14 (10)(5) Prohibited Communications between Commissioners and Commission
15 employees – No Commission employee shall directly or indirectly relay to a Commissioner 16 any communication from a party or an interested person which would otherwise be a 17 prohibited ex parte communication under Section 350.042, F.S. Florida Statutes. Nothing in 18 this subsection shall preclude non-testifying advisory Commission employees staff members 19 from discussing the merits of a pending case with a Commissioner, provided the 20 communication is not otherwise prohibited by law. However, a Commission employee staff
21 member who testifies in a case or who has acted in a prosecutorial role in a license revocation 22 or suspension proceeding or a proceeding imposing administrative fines or penalties shall not 23 discuss the merits of that case with any Commissioner during the pendency of that case. In all
24 proceedings conducted pursuant to Section 120.569 or 120.57, F.S., a Commissioner or a
