Dear Commissioner

As retirees living more or less on a fixed income constant increases in necessities like utilities simply cut into funds available for things such as food, medicine, clothing, and home maintenance. With prices going up substantially in several areas of our budget, it is now a matter of what to go without. We can't live without electricity so cuts will have to be made elsewhere is these increases become a reality. Please help us out!!

Thank you,

Dave McBride
