Dear Sirs

I'm a concerned senior citizen who is being squeezed from every side by all the necessities of life. I am paying more now for electricity than I have ever paid in my lifetime and yet I understand FPL is asking for more. At what point do we say you must learn to live within your budget. We the consumer should not be their benefactors for every upgrade, pay raise or corporate bonuses disguised as necessities to provide better service for their customers. Please consider your fellow Floridians and their needs before giving FPL what they ask for.

Sincerely, Jan M. Abney
Citizen of Fort Walton Beach, FL
