DOCKET NO. 20250011-EI
ORDER NO. PSC-2025-0237-CFO-EI
ISSUED: June 24, 2025

ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR
CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION (DOCUMENT NO. 02438-2025)

On March 31, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information contained in its Responses to the Office of Public Counsel's (OPC) First Set of Interrogatories (No. 43) and First Request for Production of Documents (Nos. 4-5, 7, 9, 14-15, 22-33, 43-44 and 50) (Document No. 02438-2025). FPL filed this request in Docket No. 20250011-EI.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Document No. 02438-2025 constitutes proprietary and confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. More specifically, FPL states that the subject Responses to OPC's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents contain information regarding internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors, pricing information related to insurance premiums, interest payment amounts, vendor invoices, solar projects, Sarbanes Oxley compliance documents, forecasted asset class return and actuarial studies related to pensions plans, employee compensation and incentive plans, earnings and interest rate projections, presentations made to investors, investment and credit ratings agency reports, affiliate capital projections, generator maintenance guidelines, operational performance studies, budget and revenue requirement forecasts, subscription data, decision making models, and customer focus groups and surveys. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. Section 366.093(3), F.S., provides that proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (b) Internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors.

ISSUED: June 24, 2025

ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR
CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION (DOCUMENT NO. 02727-2025)

On April 9, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information contained in its Response to Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) Staff's Third Request for Production of Documents (No. 21) (Document No. 02727-2025). FPL filed this request in Docket No. 20250011-EI.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Document No. 02727-2025 constitutes proprietary and confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. More specifically, FPL states that the subject Response contains pricing information for services provided to FPL by third-party vendors. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Commission has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. Section 366.093(3), F.S., provides that proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.

Upon review, it appears the above-referenced information satisfies the criteria set forth in Section 366.093(3), F.S., for classification as proprietary confidential business information. The information described above and in FPL's Request appears to contain information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of FPL or its

On March 31, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information contained in its Response to the Office of Public Counsel's (OPC) Third Request for Production of Documents (No. 53) (Document No. 02444-2025). This request was filed in Docket No. 20250011-EI.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Document No. 02444-2025 constitutes proprietary and confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. More specifically, FPL states that the Response contains Sarbanes Oxley compliance documents. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. On April 29, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information contained in its corrected response to the Office of Public Counsel's Tenth Request for Production of Documents (No. 120) (Document No. 03247-2025). FPL filed this request in Docket No. 20250011-EI.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Document No. 03247-2025 constitutes proprietary and confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. More specifically, FPL states that the information contains insurance estimates for possible losses due to wildfires, storms and floods. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR
CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION (DOCUMENT NO. 03448-2025)

On May 6, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information contained in Attachments 1 and 2 of its Response to Staff's Eighth Set of Interrogatories (No. 172) (Document No. 03448-2025). FPL filed this request in Docket No. 20250011-EI.

On May 20, 2025, FPL filed a Notice of Partial Withdrawal of its Request. Specifically, FPL withdrew its request for confidential classification of the material included as Attachment 1 of its Response to Staff Interrogatory No. 172. Therefore, this Order addresses only Attachment 2 of the Response.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Document No. 03448-2025 (Attachment 2) constitutes proprietary and confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. More specifically, the confidential information contained within Attachment 2 includes bids and pricing of components for battery storage projects. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. Section 366.093(3), F.S., provides that proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.
