I will respectfully ask that you do not allow the price increase to fall on owners who already have purchased their condo/ home. I am in Aspenwood at Grenelefe and this potential increase will directly impact me for sure. I'm on fixed income disabled owner and would be financially ruined. I am not the only one here that this will impact. Hundreds will probably have to sell; with me included. I think the answer is charging the newly constructed home buyers a connection fee and new fees.

I am just simply asking to rethink this increase and think of the ones who will suffer all around.
