I moved to Florida from Texas in 2002 with dreams with my girlfriend to live close to the water with a state that was aligned politically with my upbringing and desire for free capitalism and success.. I did well for many many years.. I am about to leave Florida.. my Electric bill was $635 in July, and I live alone in a 1700 sf house.. when I moved to Florida in 2002 my large 1 bedroom apartment was $675.. unbelievable that I work all this time to accumulate property to not be able to pay bill
