DOCKET NO. 20250001-EI
ORDER NO. PSC-2025-0417-CFO-EI
ISSUED: November 14, 2025

ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S
REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION
(DOCUMENT NO. 14867-2025)

On October 30, 2025, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) filed a Request for Confidential Classification (Request) of information on Forms 423-1(a), 423-2, 423-2(a), and 423-2(b), for Plant Sherer for the third quarter of 2025 (Document No. 14867-2025).

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL contends that the information contained in Forms 423-1(a), 423-2(a), 423-2(b), and 423-2 for the third quarter of 2025, as more specifically described in the tables in Attachment C to its Request, constitutes proprietary confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C. FPL asserts that this information is intended to be and is treated by FPL as private and has not been publicly disclosed.

FPL's justification for asserting that the information is confidential is found in more detail in Attachment C to its Request. FPL contends that part of the information involves contractual information which, if made public, "would impair the efforts of FPL to contract for goods or services on favorable terms" pursuant to Section 366.093(3)(d), F.S. FPL asserts that some of the information is proprietary data related to fuel commodity costs, fuel transportation costs, and quality-related cost adjustments. The availability of this type of information would likely eliminate the opportunity for FPL to obtain price concessions from any one supplier resulting in higher fuel oil prices. Therefore, FPL argues that this information is protected by Sections 366.093(3)(d) and (e), F.S.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records that the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. Section 366.093(3), F.S., provides that proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

(d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.

(e) Information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information.

Upon review, it appears the information and data provided in this request satisfies the criteria set forth in Section 366.093(3), F.S., for classification as proprietary confidential business information. The proprietary data related to fuel commodity costs, fuel transportation costs, and quality-related cost adjustments appears to be “information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms” and “information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information.” Thus, the information identified in Document No. 14867-2025 shall be granted confidential classification.

Pursuant to Section 366.093(4), F.S., the information for which confidential classification is granted herein shall remain protected from disclosure for a period of up to 18 months from the date of issuance of this Order unless good cause is shown that protection from disclosure shall be for a specified longer period. FPL has requested that this information be protected for a period of 24 months. FPL contends that if the fuel commodity costs, fuel transportation costs, and quality-related cost adjustments are made public prior to that date, this data, combined with information already available in the market, could jeopardize FPL’s ability to negotiate for the lowest possible fuel prices thereby driving up the price of fuel passed on to customers. Given these factors, this material shall be granted confidentiality for a period of 24 months from the date of this Order.

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED by Commissioner Gabriella Passidomo Smith, as Prehearing Officer, that Florida Power & Light Company’s Request for Confidential Classification of Document No. 14867-2025 is granted. It is further ORDERED that the information in Document No. 14867-2025, for which confidential classification has been granted, shall remain protected from disclosure for a period of up to 24 months from the date of issuance of this Order. At the conclusion of the 24-month period, the confidential information will no longer be exempt from Section 119.07(1), F.S., unless Florida Power & Light Company or another affected person shows, and the Commission finds, that the records continue to contain proprietary confidential business information. It is further ORDERED that this Order shall be the only notification by the Commission to the parties of the date of declassification of the materials discussed herein.

By ORDER of Commissioner Gabriella Passidomo Smith, as Prehearing Officer, this 14th day of November, 2025.
