Comment: This is an enormous increase. It is sad hearing the impact this increase is going to have on many here that are already struggling to live on there fixed incomes We chose this place to live because we thought it was well managed and an affordable place to enjoy our last season of our life, now we are wondering about our choice. I only know of one couple here that do not supplement their drinking water (hopefully this will not have an effect on their Health) Please try to come up with better plan that will help all.
